To whom it may concern,

I found your job posting for "Software Engineer (JavaScript) - DTM-32334" in the careers section of your website. I was excited to see a position that I would be able to contribute my skills and experience to.

I work in JavaScript daily to create software for student housing at RoomChoice. Our system is built with AngularJS, a framework that utilizes JavaScript to add interaction and data binding to the front-end of our single page app. It also handles restful API requests for back-end integrations.

My ability to learn quickly and

Thank you for your consideration. I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Travis Hoki
